Beyond Broadhall The 86 Fix

Beyond Broadhall is the sequel to The '86 Fix, and unusually for me, I read them back to back, because they're actually more like two parts of the same story, and you absolutely need to read the first one for this to make any sense.

Sadly for him, the physical characteristics of Dave in The '86 Fix are pure fiction. It took five months and nineteen days to write the first draft. It then took another five weeks of editing before The '86 Fix was released. Brenda, who worked in the charity shop in Beyond Broadhall, was loosely based upon my wife's grandfather, Bill.

21 Things You Probably Didn't Know About The '86 Fix ...

The follow up to The '86 Fix, Beyond Broadhall reveals the true horror of Craig's fiddling with time. Waking up in a secure hospital is not how expected this stage of his life to begin. When he is finally released he find's somethings are definitely better in this new timeline, yet many more things seem to be considerably worse.
